Sacraments and Prayer

Eucharistic Adoration: Fridays: Begins after 9am Mass and ends at 10:30am.

Baptism: During pregnancy, approach any priest or deacon after Mass for a special blessing of the child in the womb. Soon after birth, call the secretary to arrange an interview with a staff member and details on STARTING POINT, our parent enrichment program.

Confession / Reconciliation: Confessions will be heard on Saturdays from 4pm to 4:45pm, or by appointment with one of the priests.

Marriage: Soon after engagement, approach any priest or deacon after Mass for the special blessing of an engaged couple. Call the secretary at least six months prior to the desired wedding date to begin BETTER TOGETHER, our couple's enrichment program.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the rectory to arrange for a priest to celebrate this sacrament due to serious illness, a planned medical procedure, or advanced age.

Communion of the Sick: The clergy and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion attend to the homebound sick. Please call Jane at 718-762-2252 or the secretary to arrange temporary or long-term coverage.

SACRAMENTS OF INITIATION FOR ADULTS

For information contact Deacon William Molloy - deaconbill@olbs-queens.org

From the Pastor's Desk....

Dear Parishioners,

On the 61st World Day of Prayer for Vocations, observed on Good Shepherd Sunday, we are invited to pray for and promote all vocations. All Christians need assistance in discerning and responding to the needs of the present-day world through a vocation (calling) that God inspires in them. To participate in the Church's mission is the responsibility of all the baptized. Each member of Christ's Body serves some particular role to build up the whole body. Jesus, the Good Shepherd, is a model for all vocations, particularly for parents and priests. A new CARA survey of the 475 men to be ordained this year in the US points to the overwhelmingly positive influence that parents have had on these men in guiding and supporting their vocations to the priesthood. I attended two priest funerals this week. We now have about 225 active priests in our diocese. I can remember when we had that many parishes and each one had 3-4 priests. We still have nearly that many churches but through mergers we are down to 178 parishes. The numbers indicate that besides a pastor, only the largest parishes (OLBS would be a Medium Size) could have a second diocesan priest to serve as a Parochial Vicar (the term for an associate priest.) About 40% of parishes benefit from the services of a non-incardinated priest, that is, belonging to another diocese or religious order. Of those I mentioned to be ordained this year the average age is 35 and most have been working for several years in teaching, business or other professions. That would suggest our prayers, guidance and support of priestly vocations must extend beyond young people. While parents will play an essential role, all the members of Christ's body are needed. Pray also for vocations to the consecrated life (religious priests, brothers and sisters). I've run out of space to say more, but their witness and charisms are desperately needed today as well. The Good Shepherd will guide us to verdant pastures and life-giving streams.

In the Risen Christ, Father Bob

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

On April 16th, our students preparing to receive First Holy Communion celebrated a Bread Day Retreat. It was a special time that they spent in Church learning about the celebration of the Mass. We compared how we celebrate milestones and holidays in our home to Sunday Mass. The children realized that food is the main part of both celebrations. They all had the opportunity to see the inside of the Tabernacle, and go into the Sanctuary and stand around the Altar. They were able to taste the unconsecrated host and they are all very excited to receive Jesus on May 4th. We discussed the miracle of how the priest turns the bread and wine into Jesus' body and blood and about the Real Presence. They came to learn what the word consecration means and to pay special attention when the Altar Servers ring the bell during Mass. The students received individual loaves of bread that were sent home to be shared with their families. The purpose of this day is to help them understand that Jesus is truly present in the Eucharist and their lives will be changed forever when they receive Jesus for the first time. May God bless them on their First Holy Communion Day and always!

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK REFLECT & RESPOND TO SCRIPTURES

First Reading:

Peter bore witness to the Sanhedrin that it was the crucified and risen Jesus who healed the crippled man and through whom we are saved. Have you ever told someone else about your faith in Jesus?

Second Reading:

John tells us that as believers we are destined one day to be like the resurrected and glorified Jesus. How do you think we can best prepare for such a future?

Gospel:

As the "Good Shepherd," Jesus speaks of the power given to him by the Father to lay down his life for his sheep. What could you do this week for the benefit of another?
