From the Pastor's Desk....

Dear Parishioners,

Happy Feast of Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament. We celebrate it this year on our Saturday Day of Service. On Monday the 13th we can then observe Our Lady of Fatima. On Sunday most of the country celebrates the Ascension but since we in the Northeast have kept the traditional Thursday observance, we have a Seventh Sunday of Easter. During our Pentecost Novena, which began Friday, we are praying for an ever deeper understanding and experience of life in the Spirit. Our epistle this Sunday says: "This is how we know that we remain in him and he in us, that he has given us his Spirit." 1 Jn 4:13. In this was the risen and ascended Lord Jesus is still in our midst. (Novena links are in this bulletin.)

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

During the Lenten season, the lessons on prayer, fasting and almsgiving were greatly emphasized. The Academy and the Religious Ed. Office gave the children the opportunity once again to support "Catholic Relief Services Project Rice Bowl." The funds collected for this charity go to 100 different countries, including our own, to help overcome hunger and poverty. The children were sent home with a simple cardboard box, resembling a bowl to collect donations. During the 40 days of Lent, the children were asked to fill up their boxes. We are so proud of all of their hard work as they raised over $1,500! They were excited to return the boxes and extremely enthusiastic about how hard they worked to fill them. We would like to thank the families in the Academy and in Religious Ed. for their support and generosity; it is greatly appreciated!

Wishing a Happy Mother's Day to all and a big congratulations to our First Communicants and their families! May you continue to grow in love and friendship with Jesus.

- Jeannine Iocco

Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament Catholic Academy shared by Sister Donna Smith, D.C.

“A Holy Moment is a single moment in which you open yourself to God. You make yourself available to him. You set aside personal preference and self-interest, and for one moment you do what you prayerfully believe God is calling you to do.”

THIS WEEK'S HOLY MOMENT PROMPT IS

Stop yourself when you're about to complain and give thanks for something instead.

Want to have a guaranteed better day? Try this prompt. It takes practice to avoid complaining, but nothing can shift our perspective quite like a dose of gratitude. Thank God for three things you are grateful for every morning.

Let's keep the Holy Momentum going!!

Enjoy your week and may you be blessed with many holy moments!!

CENTERING PRAYER

Be still & know that I am God!" Ps. 46:10.

“Centering Prayer is resting in God beyond thoughts, words, & emotions. It is a way to quiet the mind while maintaining its alertness, helping to deepen faith in God's abiding presence.”

Come "rest in God" with us for a few minutes in church, in front of the Tabernacle on the 1st & 3rd Wednesday of each month. Upcoming meetings on May 1 & May 15 at 3:20-4 pm

REFLECTIONS

Looking ahead to Father Bob's question at Thanksgiving Day Mass, what are you most grateful for this year? Please send responses to nealbarbok@aol.com by June 15 or leave a note at the rectory - and look for them in the Fall edition of Reflections.

Deuteronomy

Deuteronomy | Old Testament: Book Overviews | The Bible Project

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK REFLECT & RESPOND TO SCRIPTURES

First Reading:

We learn how Peter and the apostles prayed for guidance from the Lord in choosing the right successor to Judas. What difficult decision in your life could you turn to the Lord for help in deciding?

Second Reading:

John teaches us that God's love remains in those who acknowledge that Jesus is the Son of God. When are you most comfortable sharing your faith with others?

Gospel:

Jesus prays to the Father to keep his followers united in faith, protected from the evil one, and consecrated in the truth. Have you ever thought that Jesus actually prays these things for you? ©LPi
